APPENDIX "A"

IN THE

Supreme Court of the United States

FOR THE FIFTH CIRCUIT

No. 11060

WOODROW WILSON TILGHMAN,

Appellant,

versus

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Appellee.

Appeal from the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Texas

---

(December 18, 1944.)

Before SIBLEY, HOLMES, and McCord, Circuit Judges.

McCORD, Circuit Judge: Woodrow Wilson Tilghman was indicted and convicted for the offense of violating the White Slave Traffic Act, in that he transported or caused to be transported a female from Oklahoma to Texas for immoral purpose. He was sentenced by the court to serve a term of five years imprisonment, and from such judgment has appealed.

We do not set out the evidence. To do so would involve the sordid task of following the defendant through the gutter to the sewer. It will be sufficient to say that when measured to the well considered cases defining the applicable law to the offense here charged, it points unerringly to the guilt of the defendant. 18 U. S. C. A. Sec. 398; Shama v. United States, 94 F. 2d 1; Brent v. United States, 131 F. 2d 861; United States v. Reginelli, 133 F. 2d 595.

We find no reversible error in the record and the judgment of the court is

AFFIRMED.
